What is this product?

Type: This product is a sub-fund of Atomo, an open ended investment company with variable capital and an umbrella fund with segregated liability between the sub-funds, established under the laws of Luxembourg and authorised by Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier as a UCITS for the purposes of the Luxembourg law of 17 December 2010 relating to undertakings for collective investment, as may be amended from time to time.

Intended Retail Investor: Suitable for investors with a medium to long-term time horizon, typically five years or more.

Term: This Fund has no maturity date.

Objectives:

We aim to achieve returns in excess to that of the bond market over time.

We invest mainly in bonds (loans) issued by companies worldwide that pay higher interest than other bonds. Issuers are rated by specialised consultants on a scale from A (best creditworthiness - high probability to meet interest and capital repayment obligations) to C (worst creditworthiness, vulnerable issuer). We typically invest in issuers that are less vulnerable in the near term although facing long term challenges (BB+ to B- Standard & Poor's rating). We select those on the basis of a thorough analysis of their financial situation and business perspectives. We may invest in all other types of bonds such as those issued by governments or convertible into shares. We may also invest in units of investment funds investing in bonds. This Fund is actively managed meaning that the investment manager has, subject to the stated investment objectives and policy, discretion over its portfolio, with no reference or constraint to any benchmark.

In accordance with article 6 of EU regulation 2019/2088, the subfund does not promote environmental or social characteristics nor has as objective sustainable investment, as further disclosed in the Prospectus. This Fund does not either take into account the EU Taxonomy criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as class 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-low level. Poor market conditions could impact your returns.

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less than your original investment. In addition to the market price risk, please refer to the Fund's Prospectus for further information.

If the Fund currency differs from your investment currency, you will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get depends on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

Performance scenarios

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but do not take into account your personal tax situation and may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor, which may also affect how much you get back.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances.

The unfavourable, moderate, and favourable scenarios shown are illustrations of what you might get back using the worst, average, and best performance of the product / a suitable benchmark over the last 10 years. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

What are the costs?

Costs over Time

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs. The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for two different holding periods. The figures assume you invest USD 10,000. The figures are estimates and may change in the future. The person selling you or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product performs. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods:

We have assumed that you invest USD 10,000 and that in the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0% annual return). For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario.

Investment: USD 10,000
	If you exit after 1 year	If you exit after 5 years (recommended holding period)
Total costs	307 USD	1 903 USD
Annual Cost Impact (*)	5.08 %	3.51 %

*This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at the recommended holding period your average return per year is projected to be 6.41% before costs and 2.91% after costs.
